FAMILY READING DAY

SATURDAY 6TH JUNE

Come along and bring your family to Lucan Library in the Superquinn Shopping Centre - you may not realise what a fantastic free resource the library is for all ages! Family Fun is free of charge and is for everyone, aged from 0-100!

PHONE 621 6422 TO BOOK!

10.30 am Face painting - get your face on for the Carnival later!

11.15 am For children: Lambert Puppet Theatre presents Punch and Judy. Renowned puppeteer Conor Lambert entertains us with his unique (Dublin) adaptation of 'Punch and Judy'. A very naughty Mr. Punch is left with the task of minding the house while Judy gets busy with other important chores, Mr. Punch's inability to take on the simplest of chores leads to hilarious consequences!! BOOKING ESSENTIAL

11.15 am For parents: "Encourage your child to read"

A lively discussion with writer and illustrator Oisín McGann. Born in Dublin in 1973, Oisín McGann spent his childhood there and in Drogheda, County Louth. He studied art at Ballyfermot Senior College and Dún Laoghaire School of Art and Design, and went on to work in illustration, design and film animation. His first book was published in 2003. He now lives in Kells and works as an author, freelance illustrator and artist. BOOKING ESSENTIAL

12 noon Art activity for parents and children together:

"Make a Book" - parents and children can work together to create a book out of felt, with Suzanna from the Chester Beatty Library Dublin. BOOKING ESSENTIAL

Library staff will be on hand throughout the event to speak to parents and to register all the family as members of the library. Membership of the library is FREE but proof of address must be shown, eg: ESB/Gas/Phone bill or Driving License.
