

I ♥ South Dublin County

Digital Photo Competition

What do you love about South Dublin County?

Can you capture it in an image?

South Dublin Libraries are looking for some of the best photos which capture the essence of living in, working in or visiting the County for a fantastic photography competition.

Your photo should show something of the County which makes it a great place to be. This can mean many different things – its people, its places, its culture, its heritage, work, play, the everyday, the ordinary, the extraordinary. It's up to you.

We want everyone, whatever age, to get out their cameras and take a second look at what they see around them. Take a photo and email it to us to be in with a chance of winning some fantastic prizes. South Dublin County is as vibrant and diverse as it is beautiful and serene – let's capture it!!!
