

Always wanted to be on TV?

South Dublin County Council is working with IT Tallaght to bring you an opportunity to showcase your art work, projects, and organisations during the year of 2010!

We are looking for artists, arts organisations, and arts groups (including amateur, voluntary, professional and those within youth services and schools) to put themselves forward to be interviewed on camera for a new television news magazine programme lead by students of IT Tallaght.

What do I have to do? Just show up, prepared to tell all about yourself, your group and your work! The experts at IT Tallaght will do the rest!

A number of groups, artists, and organisations may participate. Please complete the application below. Our Editorial Committee will meet and propose groups/individuals to participate. If you are selected, you will then be contacted by a student from IT Tallaght to arrange an interview and date for filming.

The opportunity is open to individuals/groups/organisations working within South Dublin County.

Deadline to submit applications: September 10, 2009 at noon

Selection Criteria: We are looking for enthusiastic people interested in highlighting and promoting their work. Selection will be based on the innovative approaches your group/organisation/work takes in addressing arts in South Dublin County.
