Playing for Integration Concert

2.00pm-4.00pm. Admission: FREE

Songwriters from eight countries - Germany, Denmark, UK, Poland, Romania, Austria, Ireland & Slovenia - will converge in Tallaght for a concert that explores the Irish Folk Music Tradition.

For the past eight months this group of songwriters has been meeting on a regular basis to explore each other's traditional music and culture and to bring their songwriting skills to a new level. They have held songwriting workshops, co-written and recorded new songs and performed at gigs and concerts. The theme is contemporary songs and folk music from each country.

This concert will showcase the talents of the Playing for Integration group including Shane O'Fearghail/Caruso, who received critical acclaim through out Europe for their debut album 'The Watcher And The Comet' in 2008.

Playing for Integration is presented by Tallaght Community Arts and Tallaght Songwriting Collective and is funded by South Dublin County Council. Broadcast Partner: Curious Broadcast.

The event will be recorded live to video and for radio. It promises to be a great gig with phenomenal players and writers.
